He Live For Me

Jesus took the same flesh that I have. He met the same temptations that I meet. He voluntarily made Himself as I am, in resisting temptation. He demonstrated that it is possible for one as weak as I am, to be obedient to God's holy will through the grace provided.

He was cruelly misunderstood, yet He refused to approve the least departure from a strictly upright course. Against the dark background of selfishness and sin, of hypocrisy and self-righteousness which characterized His time, He set forth, in His personal conduct the law of self-denial and of self-sacrificing love. He was what He taught. He lived a truly human life. He became weary, just as I do. He became thirsty when walking in the heat of the day just as I do. He required sleep to refresh His physical frame after a day of toil just as I do. He required food for His body just as I do. He differed in no way from me in all these respects. He was my brother in the flesh. And yet He was the Son of God one with the Father from eternity, through whom the worlds were created and in whom all things cohere.

Auburn SDA Church
Weekly Newsletter

This week I want to remind you of some important events coming to the Auburn congregation ... and ask you to pray for them and participate in them!

First is our group of weekly "prayer" meetings - we have three to choose from. On Tuesday morning at 10 am, Dale Tunnell leads a discussion on end-time events ... later Tuesday evening at 7 pm we study the Life of Jesus ... and on Fridays at 7 pm, Bill Beckworth reviews the fundamental doctrines of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The importance of each of these topics warrants all of our participation.

Second: please have your children and grandchildren participate in our Adventurer and/or Pathfinder clubs. Both groups are starting back up and will be a blessing.

Third: prepare yourself now [1 Corth 10:27~31] for our Communion Service on Sabbath, Sept 6th. Please know I have a special gift to share with you on that day.

Fourth is our Let's Move Day. The NAD has set aside Sunday, Sept 21, 2014 as Let's Move Day. The goal is to get as many people as possible involved in various physical activities. Shelli-Ann Jackson and her team are organizing our event at one of Auburn's parks and it will be a great outreach effort to our community. Please get involved ~ for many hands make for light work! We've invited other community groups and we have corporate sponsors. I am praying this event will create community awareness for many health issues like childhood obesity; and, it will let our community know the SDA Church is here to help them in their spiritual journey.

Fifth is our Homecoming Sabbath ~ Oct 10 & 11. Sean Morris and his team are putting together a wonderful event with great speakers and activities for the youth. Medical Doctor Subodh Pandit will explain to us how we can fulfill the mission of God's Church (like our SS lesson this week says). I am confident we'll have another wonderful Sabbath fellowship meal and an inspiring music program in the afternoon.

Sixth is our Harvest Sabbath. On Nov 15, the AES Tiger Team will be collecting food stuffs for both the elementary school and to use in making Holiday Food Baskets. I can still remember last year's event ... as I sat up front it seemed like there was a never-ending stream of saints bringing things to contribute. And what a reward when we shared your blessings with the school administration ~ they were astonished at the out pouring of concern for the children. With your prayerful participation, we'll do the same this year and we'll fulfill the commandment of Jesus found in Matt 5:16.

Last, I'm looking forward to our Holiday Musical Sabbath on Dec 20. Roxanna Uta announced last Sabbath the church choir has begun to practice. I know there are those in the congregation who can sing and I encourage you to participate in that group. Others can plan on sharing their musical talents {like playing piano ~ or violin} as we praise God in a special way in December.

Spiritual Text to Ponder

Isaiah 1 ~ 18:20

Come now and let us reason together Says the Lord ..Though your sins are like scarlet. They shall be as white as snow. Though they are red like crimson they shall be as wool.. If you are willing and obedient, You shall eat the good of the land. But if you refuse and rebel, You shall be devoured by the sword...For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.
